

IANO AGM 2023

Cork Network Report

The Cork Branch I.A.N.O. A.G.M. occurred on the 9th May 2023. This report is being submitted regarding its status.

Committee Members:

Máiréad Lyons (Chairperson)
Maeve Cloherty (Secretary and Communication Representative)
Kate O Connell (Treasurer)
Margaret Allen (Communication Representative)
Paula O Donovan (NEC representative Colette Healy)
Katie Lynch

Roles of the Committee

The roles were ratified at our AGM on 9th May 2023. Mairead Lyons will continue as chairperson of the Cork Branch. Maeve Cloherty will continue the role as Secretary and will work with Margaret Allen as communication representative. Kate O Connell will continue as treasurer and Paula O Donovan will continue as the NEC representative. We are actively seeking new member to the committee from other hospital. We are hopefully we will recruit a member from the Mercy University H

Treasurer report: Summary of finances for year ending has since been submitted by our present Treasurer Kate O' Connell. The Cork Network Account Balance 2021 is 4666.73 euro. Full copy of treasurer report is available on request from Cork Network Secretary.

Educational Study Days/ECND 23: Kate O'Connell & Mags Allen are launching an Oncology Nurses Learning Forum in CUH on 18 May to coincide with ECND 2023. IANO Cork Network will support the launch and will organize speakers. There is well-supported education initiative for nursing staff in CUH. The education session will be on every second Thursday. Topics to date have Chaplaincy Services,

Education Evening

There are plans in place for a study evening in a local hotel for March 2024. A planning meeting is scheduled for 5th December. It is hoped to have a staff nurse element theme to show case cancer nursing in Cork.

For further information regarding the Cork Branch IANO please contact Maeve Cloherty (Secretary): iano.cork@gmail.com or FACEBOOK: Irish Association for Nurses in Oncology Cork Network.

